PURPOSE

The provider, who is responsible for the website, places this document at the disposal of users, through which said provider complies with the obligations established in Law 34/2002, on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce (LSSI-CE according to its Spanish initials), and informs all users of the website of the conditions of usage of the site.

Anyone who accesses this website acquires the status of user, and as such undertakes to strictly observe and fulfil the clauses set out herein, as well as any other applicable legal clause.

The provider reserves the right to modify any kind of information that may appear on the website, and is not obliged to notify in advance or inform the users of these modifications, with publication on the provider's website being understood to be sufficient.

Liability

The provider is exempt from any kind of liability arising from the information published on the website, as long as this information has been manipulated or entered by a third party not belonging to said site.

The provider's website may use cookies (small information files that the server sends to the computer of anyone who accesses the site) to carry out certain functions deemed indispensable for the correct functioning and visualization of the website. In any case the cookies used on the website are of a temporary nature and solely for the purpose of making subsequent transmission of it more efficient and disappear at the end of the user's session. Cookies are never used for collecting personal information.

Users may be redirected from the client's website to contents of third-party websites. Since the provider cannot always control the contents entered by third parties on their websites, the provider does not accept any liability in respect of this content. In any case, the provider declares that it will proceed to immediately remove any contents that may contravene Spanish and international legislation, morals or public order, proceeding to immediately remove the redirection to said website and informing the competent authorities of the contents in question.

The provider accepts no responsibility for the information and contents, including, but not limited to that stored in forums, chats, blog generators, commentaries, social networks or any other medium that allows third parties to independently publish contents on the provider's website. However, in fulfilment of the provisions of Articles 11 and 16 of the LSSI-CE, the provider makes itself available to all users, authorities and security forces, and collaborates actively to delete or, if required, block any content against national or international laws, third-parties' rights, morals or public order.

In the event that the user feels that there is some content on the website that may be susceptible to this classification, he or she is asked to notify the website administrator of this immediately.

This website has been checked and verified to ensure it functions properly. In principle, its correct functioning can be guaranteed 365 days a year, 24 hours a day. Nevertheless, the provider does not rule out the possibility of the existence of certain programming errors, or the occurrence of causes of force majeure, natural catastrophes, strikes or similar circumstances that make it impossible to access the website.

Personal data protection

The provider is deeply committed to the fulfilment of Spanish Regulations for the Protection of Personal Data, and guarantees the complete fulfilment of its obligations, and the implementation of security measures under Article 9 of Law 15/1999 on the Protection of Personal Data (LOPD) and the regulations implementing the LOPD.

The provider makes available to users the Data Privacy Policy and informs them of the following aspects:

- Details of the person in charge of data processing
- Data processed Database where data are kept
- Purpose of processing
- Compulsory or non-compulsory nature of provision of said data, and the consequences in the event they are not facilitated
- Regarding the rights every user is entitled to and the procedure for exercising them

Intellectual and industrial property

The website, including but not limited to its programming, publishing, compilation and other elements necessary for its functioning, the designs, logos, text and / or graphics are the property of the provider or, if applicable, the latter has the licence or specific authorisation of the authors. All the contents of the website are duly protected by intellectual and industrial property laws, and inscribed in the corresponding public registries.

Regardless of the purpose for which it is intended, any total or partial reproduction, usage, exploitation, distribution and commercialisation requires prior written authorisation by the provider, in all cases. Any usage not previously authorised by the provider will be considered a serious infringement of the intellectual or industrial property rights of the author.

Any designs, logos, text and / or graphics that may appear on the website which do not belong to the provider belong to their respective owners, and they themselves are responsible for any possible controversy that may arise with regard to them. In any case, the provider has their express and prior consent.

The provider recognises the corresponding intellectual and industrial property rights of the owners, and the mere mention or appearance of the content in question on the website does not imply the existence of rights or responsibility of any kind regarding this content on the part of the provider, or any endorsement, sponsorship or recommendation on the part of the latter.

Any kind of observation regarding possible infringements of intellectual or industrial property rights, or on any of the contents of the website, may be made via the e-mail address: lafuente@queserialafuente.com

Applicable law and jurisdiction

For the resolution of any disputes or questions related to this website or the activities carried out on it Spanish legislation will be applicable, and the parties specifically submit themselves to said legislation, with the Courts and Tribunals of Santander being competent for the resolution of all conflicts arising from or related to its usage.
